I Never Knew You Felt This Way

I Never Knew You Felt This Way

Road Dogg read the letter and sat on his bed. He couldn't believe what he just read. He read the letter over and over to make sure he got it right. He got it right. "Billy, you little....." his thought was cut off when he heard Billy coming in the room. "Hey Road Dogg!" he said cheerful. Road Dogg hid the letter in his pocket. "Hey Billy. What you and Sean been up to?" he asked. Billy smiled then, sat on the bed beside Road Dogg. "Chill. We went some places. Have a smoke or two. You know, the shit we been doing." said Billy. Road Dogg smiled. "That's good. You had a great time?" Road Dogg questioned. "Yeah. Too bad you didn't go. We did a lot of shit." said Billy, taking his shirt off. "I didn't feel like partying." Road Dogg explained. Billy got up and went to the shower. Road Dogg took out the letter then, looked at it. "Cute." he whispered. He put it in his bag. He wanted to talk about it later tonight but, it can wait. After Billy came out the shower, they went to bed without saying anything. They laid in their own beds, wondering who will make the first move. The next day was the same. Going to work. The New Age Outlaws didn't said anything in the car about the letter. They went on talking about what they was going to The Rock. Then they got to the building, X-Pac greeted them. "Hey guys!! What'z up?!" he asked cheerful. His friends gave him a small but, cute grins. "Hey baby boy. We just chillin'. Ready to rasie some Hell?" asked Billy. X-Pac smiled. "Hell yeah!!" he answered. They went to their own dressing room. Billy looked at himself in the mirror. He notcie Road Dogg was shinning the belts. He never look up. Billy turned around. "What's wrong?" he asked. Road Dogg conutined to looked at the belt. "Nothing." he reponded. Billy sat beside him and lifted his head so their eyes met. "The letter?" he asked. Road Dogg nodded his head. "Why?" he asked. "What question you want to know first?" asked Billy. "Why you lied?" "Scared."

"Why?" "I thought you will act crazy." "You know I will never crazy." said Road Dogg. Billy smiled. "You never had a love letter written by a guy before." pointed Billy. Road Doog laughed. "True. But, you know what?" he asked. "What?" asked Billy. Road Dogg put his arm around Billy. "If I have to have a guy to write to me like that, I picked you." he whispered. He presses his lips on Billy's lips. Billy enjoyed it. Billy wrapped his arm around Road Dogg. "Thank you, God for letting me have a great friend like Brian." thought Billy.
